Defendant.	)

This matter was heard on April 12, 2013, upon the request of the United States Pretrial and Probation Office for a finding that defendant violated the conditions of her probation. The defendant was present and represented by Attorney Bret Jordan.

The violation report was referred to Magistrate Judge Kenneth S. McHargh who issued a Report and Recommendation on March 21, 2013. No objections were filed to the Report and Recommendation.

The Court, finding no objections had been filed, adopted the Report and Recommendation and found that the following terms of supervision had been violated:

- 2) failure to follow directives of the Probation Officer;
- 3) failure to submit monthly supervision reports in a timely manner;

The Court, after entertaining statements of counsel, the probation officer and the defendant and having considered the Section 3553(a) factors, ordered defendant's probation be continued and that she be placed on home confinement with electronic monitoring for six months; defendant shall remain at her home unless attending school, medical appointments for herself or work; defendant shall obtain/maintain employment; defendant shall complete the GED program and defendant shall fully comply with the probation department's reporting requirements.
